

CANTRELL OPPOSES VOLSTEAD LAW AMENDMENT

Representative J. Campbell Cantrell, of the Seventh district, is opposed to any amendment to the Volstead law, he stated in a letter to the Lexington Central W. C. T. U. read at the regular meeting at Central Christian church.

The letter was in reply to a query sent to Mr. Cantrell by the W. C. T. U., and was as follows:

"In reply to your inquiry regarding my stand on the Volstead law, permit me to say that I voted for the law when it passed the House of Representatives.

"I am opposed to any amendment to the law and would move against legalizing the sale of wine and beer. I assure you that I will be glad at any time to have the views of your organization on any legislative matter."

BASKET BALL TEAM OF BASEBALLERS

The Cynthiana Democrat has a communication from R. Miner, formerly pitcher for the Paris and Maysville teams of the Blue Grass League, announcing that base ball players have organized a basket ball team at Quicksand, Ky., and are ready for challenges. He mentions as members of the team Clarence Fortune, Maysville outfielder; Jimmie Hurst, base ball star of the South; Baldwin Woods, Paris outfielder; and Miner himself. Hurst is manager, his address being Box 41, Quicksand, Ky.

MILLERSBURG

Interesting News Items From Bourbon County's College Town

—Miss Louise Warford, of Bourbon, is visiting friends here.

—Mrs. Sallie Miller, who has been ill for several days, is reported better.

—Mr. S. C. Carpenter attended the National Shorthorn cattle sale in Chicago.

—Mrs. S. E. Bruce has returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. Roy Pope, in Ashland.

—The Sunday School of the Methodist church will have a Christmas tree at the church, Saturday, December 23.

—The Woman's Missionary Society of the Christian church will meet Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock, with Mrs. G. W. Judy.

—The Crimson Ramblers of Transylvania College, Lexington, will give an entertainment December 13, in the auditorium of Millersburg High School.

—If you want good bread get a sack of Crown Jewel Flour from R. L. Powell, the leading Millersburg grocer. Both phones 91.

(10-9t)

—Mr. and Mrs. Claude Vimont had as guests for the week-end A. M. Ratcliff, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ratcliff and family, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Ratcliff and son, Byron, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Peters, of Shelbyville; Mrs. W. Smith. Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Davis and son, of Flemingsburg.

—The Hamilton College notes in the Sunday Lexington Herald, gave the names of four young women who won first places in the story-telling contest which was a feature of the English Class work. One of the number is Miss Betsy Spencer, granddaughter of Dr. H. C. Burroughs, of Millersburg.

—The United Lyceum Bureau course will be discontinued very few season tickets for these entertainments being sold. As the Redpath Lyceum was the first to put their tickets on sale, the people secured them, some buying tickets for both courses, but not a sufficient number to justify the continuation of both series.

—The "Merry Minstrels" will be presented by the students of Millersburg College and Millersburg Military Institute in M. C. Auditorium, December 18. This production is similar to the "Microbe of Love," given last October, which proved a success, and this entertainment promises to be very attractive. Miss Blanche Smith, of Cincinnati, is here and will coach the students.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Butler and Mrs. W. M. Miller attended the burial of Mr. Butler's aunt, Mrs. Katherine B. Spears, in Lexington, Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Spears and family are well known here, having frequently visited in the home of Mrs. Spears' brother, the late Mr. Alex Butler, of the well-known firm of Smedley & Butler, merchants of Millersburg, for a number of years. A daughter, Mrs. Maude Spears Barnett, was a student and graduate of Millersburg College, and later member of the faculty of M. C.

—Captain Reese is to be congratulated for putting so strong a team on the M. M. I. football field the season just ended, with only one regular from last year's squad. He developed a team that any school can be proud of. Now the football season is over he will direct his services to the basket ball court. With several of last year's letter men, and good material on hand, we are expecting one of the best teams that ever represented M. M. I. Coach Reese successfully coached the champion girls' team from Kentucky Wesleyan College for the past two seasons. Games here have been scheduled with the following teams: Lexington All-Stars, Flemingsburg, Maysville, Georgetown, Cynthiana, Versailles, Carlisle and Ewing.

—An impressive memorial service was held at the Methodist Church Sunday night, in honor of Col. C. M. Best, founder of Millersburg Military Institute, who died at the home in Langhorne, Penn., Dec. 5. The Cadets of the Millersburg Military Institute, assisted by Captain Charles Fisher, of M. M. I., and Mrs. Beulah Stein, director of voice, of Millersburg College, Mrs. P. D. Jones, choir director, organist, Mrs. W. R. Nelson, pianist, and Mrs. Monroe Leer, gave a musical program. The Cadets occupied the choir seats, and in their dress uniform made a pleasing appearance. A large crowd was present, expressing their respect and esteem for Col. Best. Col. W. R. Nelson, principal of M. M. I., successor to Col. Best, in a short talk, paid a tribute to Col. Best and his work, in the building up of this school, and respects in behalf of the faculty and student body of M. M. I. Mr. Carleton Ball, in a talk paid high tribute to Col. and Mrs. Best, as a former student, and "as one of the old boys" of M. M. I.

MOTHER! MOVE CHILD'S BOWELS

"California Fig Syrup" is Child's Best Laxative

Hurry mother! Even a cross, sick child loves the "fuit" tastes of "California Fig Syrup" and it never fails to open the bowels. A teaspoonful to-day may prevent a sick child to-morrow. If constipated, bilious, feverish, fretful, has cold, colic or if stomach is sour, tongue coated, breath bad, remember a good cleansing of the little bowels is often all that is necessary. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup. (adv-T)

Buick Authorized Service Maintains Buick Dependable Performance

The blue and white emblem of Buick authorized service is always a guarantee of adequate facilities for maintaining Buick dependable performance.

On an imposing building in the biggest city, or on a cross-roads garage, it marks the place where Buick owners may obtain mechanics skilled on Buick cars, where they will find genuine Buick factory made parts, and where they will receive courteous, conscientious and helpful assistance in the continued perfect operation of their Buicks.

Buick owners have come to regard "Authorized" Buick service, no matter where they see it, with the same confidence and satisfaction that they have in any motor car that bears the Buick name.
